Focusing Attention On Year's Events

This year Sargent was a bustling, enthusiastic school, activities and classes keeping the student body busy. The ambition of the annual staff was to capture these experiences--to capture the enthusiasm in pictures. This job would require perserverance, for we would need many weeks to form a creative cross-section depicting our school life. We first discussed new ideas and planned unique layouts. Then came the time of collecting pictures, writing paragraphs, and always beating deadlines. Now with this task done, the annual staff happily presents the 1965 Sarcon.

Staff members spend countless hours in their cubby-hole, typing, writing, planning and glueing.

School Year

We, the Senior Class of 1965 dedciate this annual to Mr. Jack Kitterman, who for the last five years has so very capably held the position of principal. His position has been one that required the ability to handle countless situations: In keeping the wheels of the school rolling, he sometimes had to show a firm hand, whereas at other times patience and tolerance were required. The invaluable help he has given while at Sargent has been greatly appreciated.

TO THE CLASS OF 1965:

You are to be congratulated on your fine academic achievement; you have carried on the Sargent tradition of academic excellence.

May I wish you happiness and success in your future endeavors, whether you go on to higher education, or take your place in the work-a-day world.

Growth Starts In

Members of the Board of Education at work.

The administration at Sargent has been unsurpassed, each person fully doing his share of the vast job of running a school. They have completed the conventional jobs faithfully and have worked all the harder on emergencies and spur-of-the-moment assignments; they truly have a deep dedication to making Sargent an outstanding educational unit. Our school board and administration have indeed been an invaluable foundation for our school.

Junior Play

The play, a hilarious comedy, took place at a Co-ed camp in Connecticut to which a sissy boy had come to learn the tricks of camping. Meanwhile, romance blossomed between boy and girl counselors, leading to puppy love between the young campers. The whole scene was soon a comical, romantic mess.

In the end, however, the one time sissy boy became a baseball hero, the counselors' romance reached the kissing peak, and the puppy lovers agreed to lead a peaceful co-existence.

Sargent's gridiron team launched its 1964 season with a smashing 28-0 victory over the Primero Bulldogs. The breathless 27-0 defeat of the Rye T-birds further paved the road to a victorious season. The team met a detour, however, when they lost by a narrow margin to the Sanford Indians. The team seemed to be in a slight slump as they fell to Saguache the following game. Things brightened up when the five veteran seniors led the Farmers to plow the Westcliff Bobcats deep into the turf of their home field. Trouble seemed to follow the Farmers as they fell once more to La Veta by a close score of 26-25 with an extra point deciding the game. The team rallied for the final game and swept our home field with the Sangre de Christo team as they drove on to win 27-6, ending the year in a manner for the Sargent Farmers.

Abel Chavez pulls a Marroon down in the Alamosa tournament.

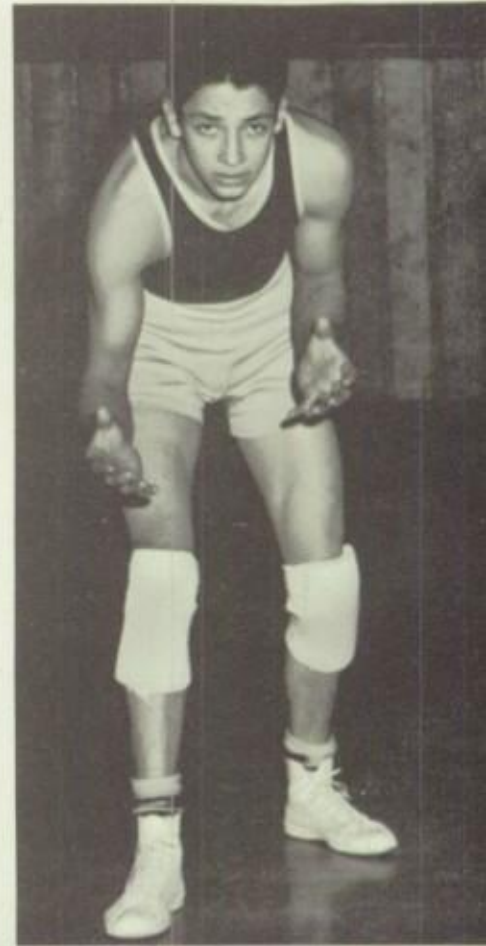

With tight muscles and a stomach full of butterflies, Sargent's mat squad started its 64-65 season in a close contest against the Center Vikings with the Center Blue coming out on top by a narrow margin. This was, however, the first and only defeat of the mighty Farmers as they went on to victory after victory, having a ten-win and one-loss record. This was highlighted by the District Tournament where they won a well-deserved Second Place, again bested only by Center. All but three of Sargent's squad placed in the District semi-finals with four boys going to Denver to wrestle in the State Tournament. At District which was held at Centauri High School, Alvin Gonzales, 133 lb, took first; Ron McAlpin, 180 lb., Fermin Aguilar, 154 lb., Thad Elliott, 138 lb., and Andy Sanchez, 112 lb., took second. And in third place were Ken Howerton, 120 lb., Mike Shoemaker, 154 lb, and John Chisholm, 165 lb. Indeed did the squad well represent Sargent High.

Excellent Year

Alvin Gonzales seems to be more of a gymnast than a wrestler while doing battle with a Centauri Falcon.

The inexperienced Farmer squad began their 64-65 season with an exciting contest with the Monte Pirates. Led by their only Senior, the team scored victories over the Center Vikings, the SDC T-Birds, and the Sierra Grande Panthers. The whole season was filled with surprises, especially since three of "the first string" were Freshmen. By gaining experience, these Freshmen will indeed go far for Sargent in the years to come. Although the season was not the most successful that the Farmers have known, its was a truly exciting one.

The student council, one of the most important organizations at school, coordinates the projects of the classes, approves plans, and acts as the pace-setter for the entire school. This provides a close relationship between the faculty and the student body in the total effort of furthering education. The club that also furthers the promotion of education is the Future Teachers of America. Together they instill in us the importance of a solid foundation in education.

Musicians Interpret

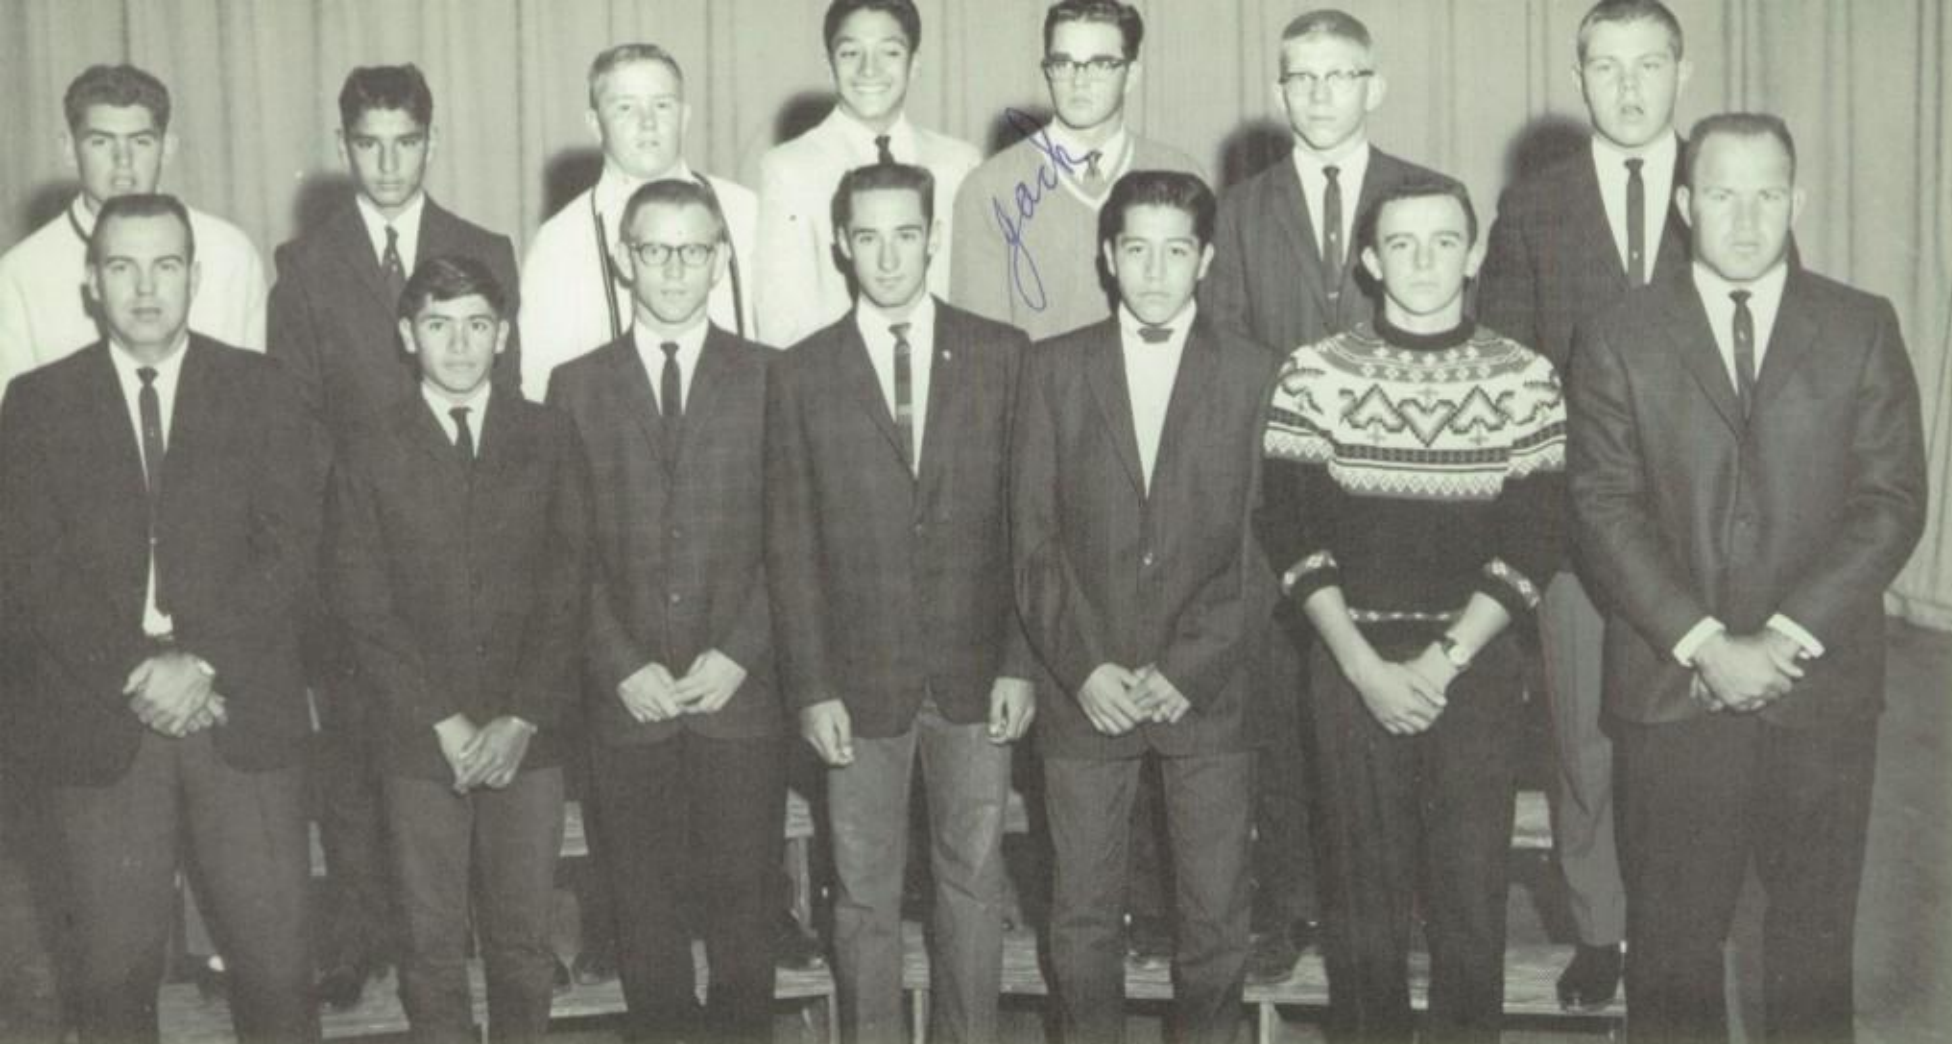

The school day was brightened when the sound of music rang through the halls as the choir or band warmed up for another session of rehearsal. At the climax of these regular practices, Mr. Deaton's music department presented a worthwhile performance. This year's highlight was the "Feast of Carols". Indeed, the tireless efforts of the students made it possible for Sargent to again be proud of its music groups.

Good sportsmanship in the school helps to create a sense of spirit among the students--a spirit which generates a genuine feeling of purpose and cooperation. "S" Club, the members of which have received recognition as the result of upholding the standards of true sportsmanship, and G.A.A., whose main goal also is to inspire sportsmanship, are indeed organizations to be commended for their ideals.

Organizations at SHS keep the students on their toes at all times. The National Honor Society, composed of the scholars, held the annual initiation and banquet. Also, many projects, such as the Christmas basket, kept the Future Homemakers buzzing throughout the year. In addition to these organizations, the Library Club, the members of which assist the pupils in finding needed materials in the library, has been an asset to the Sargent school system. Indeed, the activities play a major role in our school life.

SPRING

ROCK CREEK

Our Town

The Senior Play was one of the most extraordinary productions given at Sargent. The story was a great challenge, for it was a drama portraying the life in the late nineteen hundreds. The attention of the audience was captured by the emotions of the story, for the play did not rely upon the scenery, but instead was enhanced by the effective pantomining and lighting. As a result, the two night performances were received very well by the community.

The first act outlines the history of the town, which is Grover's Corners, N.H., and something of the character of its citizens. The audience is introduced into the homes of the Gibbs and Webb families. The second act concerns the love affair between young George Gibbs and little Emily Webb, and thus culminates in a moving wedding scene, which contains all those elements of poignant sorrow and abundant happiness that make for solemnity and impressiveness. The third act leads the audience to the cemetery on the hill, where many of the townspeople are patiently and smilingly awaiting not "judgment" but greater understanding. Into their midst is led the bride, a little timid at first, a little wishful to go back to life. But she is shown how impossible it is to return. The past cannot be re-lived. Living people, always preoccupied, know little of true joy. Truth is to be found only in the future. This play required the help of the entire class, everyone having a part. The main characters were as follows:

Mike Shoemaker.	Stage Manager
Debbie Elliott.	Emily Webb
Kenny Howerton.	George Gibbs
Betty Sanderson.	Mrs. Webb

Ron McAlpin.	Mr. Webb
JoAnne Chambers.	Mrs. Gibbs
John Chisholm.	Dr. Gibbs
Mrs. Holland.	Director

Junior Senior Prom

May 1, 1965

Fantasy In The

Deep

May 1, 1965--a new year, a new day--the Junior class honored us Seniors at a banquet and prom. Although we did not spend the same memorable moments creating this prom, we were just as excited as the year before. To say the least, some of us were somewhat shocked at the theme of the banquet--"Midnight in a Coal Mine"! In accordance with the theme, the color scheme was black. The servers, dressed as coal miners, entered the serving room through a mine shaft--"Service Shaft No. 9". The original menu announced the meal--leg of swine, coal in a cart, miner's delight (better known as ham, potatoes, and pie).

The banquet was fun, but what was to come? No need to worry--the Juniors aren't completely insane. No, indeed, they presented us with a beautiful prom "Fantasy in the Deep". On approaching the depths, we were in awe at the sight of the whale head, with its mouth wide open forming a cubby hole for the band, the Greenbrier's. A large open oyster shell with a basketball-sized pearl inside were the seats of the king and queen--John Chisholm (who unfortunately arrived after the proposed crowning time!) and Cindy McConnell. King Neptune and the Mermaid served at the dance. Our Senior Prom will never be forgotten, and we want to thank the Juniors for a grand job.

Boy And Girl Of The Year

Each year two seniors, a boy and a girl, are selected by the student body as being the two most popular of that class. This year Alvin Gonzales and Debbie Elliott were chosen as these two. We, the Annual Staff, congratulate you on being chosen Boy and Girl of the Year.

Alvin Gonzales

Debbie Elliott

One student is chosen each year as the Outstanding Student of Sargent High School. For this award the outstanding attributes of scholarship, leadership, dependability, and character are considered. This year Cindy McConnell was chosen as the student who best represented these qualities. We salute you, Cindy.

WEIGHT MEN: Rodney Bennett, Eddie Espinoza, Charles Christensen, Tom Sanderson.

Speed-A Main

In spite of the fact that there were but two seniors on the squad and the majority of the tracksters were freshmen, the Sargent cindermen did an exceptionally fine job. After an encouraging season of many victories and surprises, the team managed to secure a second place in the mile relay and a fourth in the 880 relay at the district meet. Ending the season was an enjoyable trip to the state meet which left the boys looking forward to next year's season. With much natural ability and priceless experience, now possessed by the fine underclassman athletes, Mike McCarthy, Jack Scott, Gary Miner, and many others, the '66 season should be an even more victorious one.

Graduation--the highlight of a wonderful Senior year, but most of all, the climax of a very exciting last week at Sargent. Our final school hours started with Senior dress-up day, ending that night with class night and later a party. Next we rushed through the happy moments of our formal Senior dinner prepared by our mothers. But the excitement didn't stop here, for a maze of graduation practices, stage decorating sessions, and bus painting episodes kept us scurrying. Finally the long-awaited moments were here, when Baccalaureate and Commencement were upon us, and all too soon we were marching down the aisles with those hard-earned diplomas. A five-day tour of Colorado rounded-off the year, before we each went our own ways.
